- ‘Good research practice: culture, environment and sustainability’
- How can the research community ensure high standards of quality and ethics in these challenging times?
- How can we reduce waste in research and adapt to new ways of working?
- How can we respond to wider issues facing society?

- UKRIO is growing and evolving.
- New four-year strategy for the charity, setting out how we will do even more to support good research practice and research culture.
- More details soon!

Mission Statement

UKRIO's mission is to:

- champion the good governance, management and conduct essential for high quality and ethical research
- strengthen the research community by improving trust in research
- create and share knowledge of best practice and positive research cultures and conduct
- give confidential, independent and expert advice and guidance on all forms of research integrity challenges and opportunities as they arise
- lead and shape conversations about research integrity in the UK and beyond
